

I refer to the
 You have requested our advice With reference to your request for advice as to the language to be included on your various transmittals and cover sheets in order to ~~avoid~~ bring your practices within the ~~language~~ concept of § 798 of Title 18 of the US Code.

It is believed better It is suggested that you require all concerned to read, and verify to having done so, a regulation which provides that a ~~any document~~ material stamped with the phrase "This document contains <sup>classified</sup> information within the meaning of § 798, Title 18, of the US Code" or a transmittal document reading "Appended Document contains classified information within the meaning of § 798, Title 18, of US Code" is a material document which, for reasons of national security, is specifically designated by the CIA for ~~inclusion~~ <sup>inclusion</sup> ~~in~~ <sup>in</sup> this or that